Directions: In column B, give an example of each kind of word in column A. Then, write a narrative using 10 of those words in column B. Write your story on the back of this page. Your narrative must at least be as long as the back of this page. If more room is needed, use a piece of loose leaf paper. Underline or highlight the words from column B in the narrative. Complete your narrative AND column B in cursive. Lastly, you will need to illustrate your narrative. Your illustration must include at least one item from the words you incorporated into your narrative from column B.

A	B
Movie Title ¹
Name of a Person
Name of a City
Name of a Train ¹
Name of a Team
Name of an Animal
A Body of Water
Name of a Street
Name of a Building or Structure
A Calendar Item
Name of a Specific Business Product
Name of a Award
Name of a Government Body
A Closing of a Letter

¹ When writing the title of a movie or the name of a train, it always has to be underlined. Ex: My favorite movie is Finding Nemo. I love to ride on the Orient Express. Make sure to underline these things in column B as well as in your story if you choose to use them in your narrative.
